A KING'S RESPONSIBILITY

The Fort Myers News-Press wonders when the time comes if King George may not follow the example of King Leopold. "Surrender or we will blast your island from the map," coming from the German high command would be a great temptation for any monarch, as it was for Leopold.

It is one thing to send trained soldiers to the battlefield. It is quite another to take upon yourself the responsibility of the deaths of thousands of women and children and the destruction of great cities. What will England do?—Sanford Herald.

A WAR ON RELIGION

There is in the United States too much disposition to talk of the European situation purely in terms of Hitler and his dictatorship. If the issue were not so serious, we might tolerate such an interpretation. It might make no difference what theories men held about the struggle, if we were dealing with an academic question.

FULLER'S FULMINATIONS

by Fuller Warren

POLITICAL CHICANERY

Last week I promised to impart the strange, but true, story of an old saw that was slain by a Fla. sheriff for purely political purposes. Today I am going to tell this story just as it was told to me by the man who played the villain.

Many odd and amusing things occur during political campaigns that never get into print. Many articles, entirely unknown to the most astute politicians, are originated by petty local politicians in attempting to become office holders and enjoy the prerequisites incident thereto.

One of the most adroit and ingenious of these artifices that ever came to the attention of this indolent writer, occurred some years ago during the heat of the political season. An illiterate sheriff of a small county was a candidate for re-election. His opponent was very strong. The incumbent's election hinged upon the vote given him in a certain precinct, as close was the race. The vote of this precinct was controlled by an old patriarch who was infinitely ignorant, but possessed of the most immutable political convictions.

This old man was bitterly opposed to the sheriff. Every friendly advance of the sheriff had been repulsed. Election day was near at hand. The result of this particular precinct would determine the result of the election. The sheriff was in dire straits.

While conditions were thus, the sheriff happened to pass the old patriarch's farm on a political errand. He was several hundred yards beyond the farm house when he espied an old sow standing motionless in the middle of the road with a large litter of pigs close by. A daring plan, conceived in desperation and born of necessity, entered the sheriff's head. He gave his powerful car all the

But the situation involves something far more profound. And it is a matter even more profound than the question of the possibility of a dictator's securing some sort of control over us here in America, serious as that would be.

What we have here is no mere struggle for political power on the part of one or several men. It is no mere effort to destroy one or another empire. The German campaign might be handicapped by the kidnapping of Hitler and his delivery to the league of nations in return for the money of the Pittsburgh plutocrats, but the real issue would not have been touched. Col. Samuel Harden Church's offer is more ridiculous in its idea to grasp the fundamental nature of the struggle than in the folly of the very idea of kidnapping.

What we have in Europe can not be explained adequately by the theory of individual or national ambition for military and political power, and if we indulge the thought that it can be so explained, we may so thoroughly delude ourselves that no amount of military preparation would give us security.

What is going on in Europe—and even throughout the world—is a war of thought and spirit, a war upon religious and, in some sense, upon the Christian religion itself. It constitutes a revolt of peoples who are as sheep without a shepherd. Hitler lies not too much in the fact that Hitler seems about to move at will in Europe even toward the breaking of the power of the British empire. The peril in the fact that Hitler seems able to move lying the ground for a general conflagration to be kindled by the same or similar agents.—Christian Standard.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

By Russell Kay

My little black dog is a very gentle and peaceful creature. He is well behaved and extremely friendly, but with one word I can transform him from a serene and happy canine into a raving, scratching, yelping maniac.

All I have to do is say "RATS!" in a more or less similar tone and he'll jump from a sound sleep into a ball of furry fury. Although the nearest rat may be ten miles away, I can point under the davenport or under the bed or in any other place where he'll start to sniff and bark and bark and whine himself into a perfect frenzy.

"A dumb animal," you say. Yes, but not much dumber than a lot of so-called humans we meet every day. During the past few weeks in this country a lot of otherwise sane and normal human beings are acting pretty much like the little dog I've been talking about.

Vivid tales of "fifth column" activities in connection with the European conflict have suddenly awakened us to the fact that similar operations are in progress in America. Thousands of folks who have paid no attention to the findings of the Dies Committee, who have looked with no alarm on "bums" or numerous other "subversive" activities, have suddenly come out of their slumber to prove a "witchhunt" that is not cut and dried and intelligently directed as some are so cruel and inhuman as anything a Nazi Gestapo might devise.

America has rightfully been termed the "melting pot" of the world, for our 130,000,000 people are made up of a conglomerate mass of descendants of every nationality. They represent every creed and color and they have come to us from the ends of the earth.

Among them are many born in Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, Russia or some other country. Additional millions are only one generation removed from the "old country," but if they were born in America or have become naturalized they are just as much Americans and just as much entitled to enjoy the blessings and protection as you and I. Likewise, as good Americans they are just as loyal and ready to defend this country against its enemies, whenever they may be.

From the days of the American Revolution up to the present, the blood of every nationality, creed, and every color, has mingled on the battlefield, for America and all it stands for might live.

During the past few weeks I have encountered hysterical rumors and wild talk about this or that citizen suspected of being a "fifth columnist." Ugly rumors, absolutely unfounded as to fact, based only on a German name, an Italian accent or some other nonsensical triviality.

This loose talk and these silly rumors are picked up by the slightest fanatical people, to be enlarged upon and passed along until they are magnified into hideous indictments that can work untold harm and injustice upon honest, upright, loyal American citizens.

I realize full well, as do all

Americans today, that subversive activities are being carried on in this country, and have been carried on here for a long time. I further realize that it is IMPERATIVE that such activities be stamped out, and QUICKLY.

But there is a SANE and INTELLIGENT way to do it, and the government has set up a special department of the F. B. I. charged with the job. It is not your job or mine to pass judgment on any citizen. If we have any basis for suspecting either individuals or groups, our duty is to report with full and complete details to the nearest F. B. I. agent and we can rest assured that the matter will be investigated promptly.

And since you and I are not trained and inclined to employ snap judgment or go off half cocked, it behooves us to refrain from expressing our own suspicions or starting up rumors and better that we await the findings of the F. B. I.

Let us keep our feet on the ground, our heads clear, and let our actions and our tongues be guided by tolerance, justice and fair play. It is possible to be firm and yet not fanatical.

THESE THINGS HAPPENED IN THE LAKE REGION 15 YEARS AGO AND WERE RECORDED BY THE EVERGLADES NEWS

Canons Highway and connecting roads are open and are in daily use all the way through from West Palm Beach to Tampa.

A quarter of a million dollars worth of lots were sold Monday when the first unit of Okeechobee Shores, a townsite at Chaney Bay was placed on sale at the main office in West Palm Beach.

To consult a street building contractor, W. W. Bonham and John G. Magaw of Lake Worth went to Okeechobee Wednesday. They have the control of that part of the Canal Point townsite north of the canal and announce that they will have streets and sidewalks built in as soon as they can get a contractor to take the job.

C. R. Brigham has bought an Essex coach and he has taken the local agency for the Hudson and Essex line in the Canal Point territory.

Mrs. Barrett has leased the dining room of the Glades Hotel to Olaf Bow, who is having changes made in the entry to the building and in the arrangement of the dining room.

More truly "the big store" than ever before J. E. Carter has reorganized in the mercantile business using his packing house 7x150 feet, as the store room. Hardware will be the store's chief line, this being a part of the building supplies. Mr. Carter's purpose being to carry everything needed for construction except lumber. Mr. Dow Geiger is active in charge, assisted by Miss Ann Griffith.

L. L. Stuckey attended the Shrine grand lodge at Los Angeles, Cal. Enroute west he wrote a post card to The Everglades News: "Had a good time in New Orleans; also in San Antonio. Will reach El Paso sometime today, and at Juarez we will see a bull fight." The post card dated May 30 but was mailed at Los Angeles.

Angles and postmarked June 5. Newspaper reports show that the shrine parade in Los Angeles had to be postponed because of a heavy rain. This did not prove that California weather is very good.

R. M. Baker went into West Palm Beach the latter part of last week and took the examination for postmaster at Canal Point.

The house today adopted a memorial asking Congress to make a survey of the proposed inland waterway along the lower end of the state up the Caloosahatchee river, through Lake Okeechobee and the St. Lucie canal.

Belle Glade, Fla. May 25, 1925
 Dear Mr. Sharp: I am sorry that I have to disagree with you in regard to the proposed toll road from Miami to LaBelle. I am strongly in favor of it. No public road will be built in this region for years to come. Yet there are hundreds of land owners, who bought small tracts from the Okeechobee Fruit Lands Company and who are tax payers as well as the rest of us, even if they cannot live on their property, and who are entitled to transportation facilities. You know how hard it is to get the most necessary roads built. It takes the county 10 years to do what Mr. Connors did in one year. And how we have had to fight for it, you know. You were strongly in favor of Connors' toll road. Why not support this one also? "A highway along each main canal" is my slogan.

Respectfully yours
 JOHN NEWHOUSE

TO STUDY WATER

The U. S. Geological Survey, which has headquarters in Ocala, is to establish a sub-office at Canal Point, which will be in charge of H. A. Roberts and J. W. Pepper. Research will be made of the comprehensive water flow which can later be used in study and correction of present drainage problems, in connection with Army Engineering surveys.

Goodbye to SPRING CLEANING!

Thanks to modern electric cleaning appliances, operated by cheap electricity, the old tradition of "Spring Cleaning" is out of date. With these electric helpers on the job all year round—dust and dirt don't have a chance to accumulate in corners, grime can't hibernate in rugs and upholstery. The electric vacuum cleaner ferrets out Old Man Dirt before he has a chance to get a foothold—the modern home is healthily fresh and clean every day in the year, with no "Spring Cleaning" drudgery. Rugs and draperies last longer.

SEE LABOR-SAVING APPLIANCES AT YOUR ELECTRIC DEALER'S. Take advantage of cheap electricity brought to you by your Sunshine Service organization. At low "step-down" rates, for example, you can clean four rooms for about a penny with an electric vacuum cleaner!

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walits will carry on Mrs. Walits' new work during her absence.

Boys To Get Taste Of Government

Tallahassee, June 13 (AP)—200 boys will learn something about state government. The event, termed "Boys' State," is sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary, the clergy, civic, fraternal and educational organizations.

Boys selected by their groups from all sections of the state are being sent to the capital where for a week they will be given an opportunity to watch the functioning of state government and set up their own administration at Reynolds Hall on the campus of the Florida State College for Women.

The boys will be divided into groups representing various governmental departments. They will elect a Governor and members of the cabinet, as well as Supreme Court Justices. Other groups will be composed of legislators, commissioners, and other officials.

Appointments of department and bureau heads will be made by the Governor and, following the regular procedure, these boys will, under the guidance of state officials, be given an insight into the functions of each department.

H. B. MILLER IN KENTUCKY

H. B. Miller, Canal Point druggist, left Tuesday for Bowling Green, Kentucky, where he will spend several days with relatives and friends. Mr. Miller had planned to make the trip later in the summer, but went this week on account of the illness of a brother.

Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Francis Cross are operating the drug store during Mr. Miller's absence.

FOR SPEAKER

Representative Dan McCarthy, well known to many Glades people, who hails from Ft. Pierce, is being mentioned as one of the favored candidates for speaker of the Florida House, when the legislature meets in 1940. John Barkin of Pasco county, is one candidate who has declined to seek the position as house chairman.

TO VISIT IN WEST

W. L. Brandon, one of Canal Point's pioneer citizens, farmers and packing house operators on Saturday, left for Marianna, where he will visit with friends for a time, and later will go to Denver, Kansas city, and then back to New York to take in the fair. He may likely continue his trip to California while in the west.

Clewiston Man Dies By His Own Hand

Christian Johnson, a mechanic at Clewiston, early Monday morning tried to kill his wife and two daughters with a hammer and razor blade. He then used the razor blade to cut his own throat from which wounds he died.

Johnson had used a cloth bound hammer on his wife's head, inflicting a serious, but not fatal scalp wound, and also cut her arm with the razor blade.

Margie, a 16 year old daughter, and Ouida, aged 12, were in their mother's bedroom when the attack was made by the husband and father, and Mary knocked the hammer over to her and by the father before he killed himself.

Johnson had resided in Clewiston for the past five years, but had been working over his health and finances had acted queerly for the past few days, it was said in Clewiston.

TO WEST PALM BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kallenbrun, pioneer Pahokee citizens, have taken an apartment at West Palm Beach for the summer season. Later they will take a short touring trip.

Canning Is Done At Camp Osceola

The Government health officials and nurses now on duty at the operating camp at Belle Glade, are giving vocations for typhoid fever to all residents of the camp as a health precaution step. Most of the residents are now receiving the record medical service, for which they seem to be most appreciative.

A home made canning plant has been set up in the recreation hall at Camp Osceola where tomatoes are being canned, with an expected output of around 2000 cans. A number of barrels of ketchup have also been manufactured. If the trial packing is a success, it is likely that the government will add a strawberry packing plant for next year, using surplus crops.

The contractors for the landscaping of the camp is expected to start work on this improvement at an early date.

ATTENDEE BOOP MEET

Johnnie Boop, Jr., one of the honored guests at a banquet given by Palm Beach Lodge, No. 88, BOOP in this city, on last Friday night, the banquet honored the annual visit of the "Boop" Master, who this year is A. H. Davis, of Jacksonville. Around 125 guests heard a most impressive address by their state leader.

Lauderdale Has 17,640 Population

Tentative figures released Tuesday by J. W. O'Bannon, district United States census supervisor, show a population of 17,640 for Lauderdale. This figure reveals a more than 100 per cent increase over a total of 8,604 listed four years ago. O'Bannon estimated that the official figure will press the 18,000 mark.

MISS HOWELL TO SPEAK

Miss Frances Howell, who has been a student in the Library school in North-Carolina, has returned home, and will be the speaker at the morning service at the First Methodist church on Sunday morning. In the evening the choir will have charge of the program, which will include a good old fashioned singing program.

Much Building On The East Coast

The Miami-West Palm Beach area has been the scene of the construction of hotels, restaurants and apartment houses with a total of $1,250 in projects being aided by the State Public Commission at Tallahassee. The Associated Press reported Tuesday.

The permits included 17 hotels costing $1,561,749 and 53 apartments costing $585,520. Several plans in building operations went to the Tampa area with permits totaling $51,200.

The summer building season is full swing in Florida's resort areas.
